

Get Certified as a UCLA PEERS® Provider for Adolescents

3 days. 24 hours. One credential.

School-Based track · Live online · Taught by a UCLA-trained master facilitator

A 3-day, 24-hour intensive certifying educators, psychologists, counsellors and allied-health practitioners to deliver UCLA's evidence-based social-skills curriculum (School-Based track) to adolescents across schools, clinics and community programmes.

DATES	16–18 November 2026 (Mon–Wed)
TIME	7am – 3pm SGT (UTC+8) each day
DURATION	8 hours a day · 24 training hours
FORMAT	Live online · Zoom, Google Meet or MS Teams
REGION	Open across Asia Pacific · limited cohort size

WHO IT IS FOR

- Teachers, special educators and school leaders
- School and clinical psychologists
- School counsellors and social workers
- Speech, occupational and behavioural therapists
- Allied-health practitioners working with adolescents

WHY IT MATTERS

PEERS® is one of the few social-skills programmes for adolescents with published evidence behind it. Certification qualifies you to run it under your own School-Based Provider credential — and opens paid facilitation assignments Asia-wide.

Places are limited and confirmed on payment.

REGISTER >

peers.asia/register

What you'll teach, and what you'll walk away with

UCLA PEERS® School-Based Certification · 16 sessions, 4 phases

THE 16-SESSION CURRICULUM YOU'LL BE CERTIFIED TO RUN

Foundations

- 01 Trading information
- 02 Two-way conversation
- 03 Electronic communication
- 04 Choosing appropriate friends

Core skills

- 05 Appropriate use of humour
- 06 Entering group conversations
- 07 Exiting conversations
- 08 Get-togethers · planning
- 09 Get-togethers · hosting
- 10 Good sportsmanship

Conflict & repair

- 11 Handling arguments
- 12 Changing a bad reputation
- 13 Handling teasing
- 14 Handling bullying
- 15 Handling rumours & gossip

Mastery

- 16 Graduation & review

The School-Based track contains no romantic-relationships content — it is built for adolescents in school settings.

WHAT CERTIFICATION GIVES YOU

- UCLA PEERS® School-Based Certified Provider credential
- Listing in the international UCLA Certified Providers directory, and a featured profile in the peers.asia Asia Pacific directory
- Full curriculum manual, 16-session protocols and the parent and teacher handout library
- Outcome measurement tools adapted for schools
- Implementation coaching calls and access to the peers.asia practitioner community
- Paid facilitation assignments Asia-wide as a Certified Provider

QUALIFYING, AND THE ALTERNATIVE

Certification is for practitioners working with adolescents; credentials are reviewed after registration. If you don't qualify as a Certified Provider, a Community Learning Pass gives you access to the same three days of training without the provider credential.

Attend all three days and complete the in-session facilitation assessment on Day 3 and you are certified — there is no separate exam. Certificates are issued within 7 days of the cohort.

Questions? Talk to us peers@peers.asia · peers.asia

REGISTER >